Sir

I. B. Kēsavaengar -

Retired First grade Amildar of Channa-rayapatna, Hassan District beg to submit this for the kind consideration of Govt and Darbar.

Though I was retired at the end of August 1900, yet my pension has not been sanctioned by Govt, and this delay I presume, has occurred from my pension papers being delayed in the Hassan District when I served last at the time of retirement

The time I held the position of a First grade Amildari, and the short time I held the position of an Assistant-Commissioner -

if taken together would entitle me to a pension of a little less than the moiety of my pay as First grade amildar. While thus being so, I urge these special claims to the favourable notice of Govt and Durbar, to consider my request as entitling me for the grant of moiety of my last pay as pension, as a special case by the Govt.

The late chief Commissioner of Mysore in Govt Proceedings No $\frac{5446}{124}$ dated 14th October 1878, with a view to the enlistment of candidates for the place of amildars, by virtue of their birth and qualifications directed the Selection of 6 men for each District. Then I was in Shimoga; I was selected as the foremost man for the place of an amildar in the Shimoga District by the then Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga District, and I was also recommended by the Deputy Commissioners of Chitaldroog and Tumkur Districts who knew me while they were as Shimoga, as one of the 6 men for their respective Districts for the favourable note of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore.

This I was awarded for an unbroken period of 23 years from the Year 1878 to the Year 1901. I think it is within the knowledge of Govt that men who have seen the service of an award for such a long time, without any shortcomings whatsoever in their Career as was in The Service of Govt.

I have done special duty in connection with the visit of His Highness, the late lamented Maha Raja Chamaraja Wodeyar Bahadur to Belur and Manjarabad Palaces being called away from other Palaces when I was there, and also on the occasion of late Highness' tour to Bombay Presidency and back with the present His Highness Krishna Raja Wodeyar Bahadur. Besides this when Lord Landsdowne, the late

Viceroy of India visited Mysore

I was deputed to special duty from Hunsur Taluq to Heggadevankote Taluq in connection with tiger shikar operations, and was successful in the Shooting of 3 tigers by His Excellency and in entrapping a tiger and Sending it on to the late Highness.

His Excellency, the Viceroy, and His Highness the late Maharaja of Mysore.

being satisfied with my work in the jungle for a period of 2 months and over, the late His Highness the Maharaja did promise me on his way to Calcutta, at Paschimavahini to better my prospects, and this fact is quite known to the then

Deputy Commissioner of Mysore

District, and the present Justice of the Honourable the Chief Court

Mr. A. Rangaswamaiengar B.A.Bl. and Mr. C. Srinivasaiengar. Then on special duty in connection with the Shikar operation and the present Councillor, and Mr. V. P Madava Rao B.a, The present First Councillor and Revenue Commissioner of Mysore.
In addition to the above, as per orders of Her Highness The Mchi Rani Regent Vanivilas C.I., I have also special duty for a period of 2 months in connection with the marriage of His Highness Krishnaraja Wodeya of Mysore. in Subordination to The Palace Comptroller

In the Madras Presidency pensions are granted on the average pay of 3 years, in the case of each and every officer concerned without any distinction of the same holds good here, as my first grade and does exclude such a period of 3 years I am entitled to a moiety of my last pay as pension, without any special claims enumerated above.

If the Govt and Dunbar desire to see the testimonials I have got from my superior officers during the time I was in service, I shall send them. As they are too many in number I refrain from annexing them to the application

Taking all the above circumstances into consideration, I pray that the Govt of Mysore and Dunbar, with its characteristic liberality, will be pleased to sanction the award of moiety of my last pay as pension in considering my pension papers.

I beg to remain

Honored Sir

Your most obedient Servant
